Introducing... The South Wales HR Forum

- Alternative Voice For The South Wales HR Community
- Only group dedicated solely to independently representing the interests of the HR community in this region.
- Our voice will be heard on a wide range of HR related topics along with other bodies
- We look forward to partnering on a range of topics with others whilst maintaining our independent status.

The logo for the South Wales HR Forum is located in the bottom right corner. It consists of a blue square containing the text "South Wales" in white, "HR" in large blue letters, and "Forum" in white below it.
